

BUSINESS/STATE

Submitted photo

Mandy Pearce, owner and operator of Pewaukee Family Chiropractic, was named Ambassador of the Year by the Pewaukee Chamber of Commerce.

Submitted photo

Hansi and Ingrid Herzog will receive the Small Business of the Year Award by the Pewaukee Chamber of Commerce for their business, Minuteman Press – Waukesha.

Pewaukee chamber selects award winners

Dinner to be held Feb. 4

PEWAUKEE – The Pewaukee Chamber of Commerce has selected several businesses and business leaders in Waukesha County to be recognized at its award dinner next month.

The Pewaukee Chamber of Commerce will host its 29th annual Community/Business Awards Dinner from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. Feb. 4 at Milwaukee – Marriott West Hotel, W231-N1600 Corporate Court, City of Pewaukee. The community is invited and can register online at www.pewaukeechamber.org. Dinner tickets are $49 each or $89 per couple. The registration deadline is Friday.

The Small Business of the Year Award will be given to Minuteman Press – Waukesha, which is a full-service design and printing company led by a husband and wife team, Hansi and Ingrid Herzog. Hansi and Ingrid Herzog believe and wholeheartedly practice that by being active in the community they can help build a strong and bright tomorrow, according to the release.

Rebecca Scarberry, owner of Becky's Blissful Bakery, was selected as the Entrepreneur of the Year. Her operation has expanded from two days a week to six days per week and four part-time employees with her capacity quadrupling without borrowing money.

AmeriSign & Graphics will be given the Innovative Marketing Award. In the last couple of years, AmeriSign & Graphics' marketing techniques have shifted in order to keep up with the ever-changing times.

Mandy Pearce, owner and operator of Pewaukee Family Chiropractic, was named Ambassador of the Year. She owns the business with her husband, Brad Pearce. In her role as ambassador she met and greeted hundreds of Pewaukee entrepreneurs.

Amy Pugh will be awarded the Employee Appreciation Award. Pugh serves as the director of information technology for the Pewaukee School District. She led a cutting-edge teaching and learning practice using individual student laptops, according to the release.

The Business Advocate of the Year award will go to Deborah Bayee, who works as a business advocate, giving back to the community through her volunteer work with Positively Pewaukee and the Pewaukee Chamber of Commerce.

Submitted photo

Helen S. Ackley has been selected as the Citizen of the Year by the Pewaukee Chamber of Commerce.

Helen S. Ackley has been selected as the Citizen of the Year. Ackley, a City of Pewaukee resident, is known as "volunteer extraordinaire." She volunteers for Positively Pewaukee, Pewaukee Area Historical Society, Friends of the Library, Pewaukee Park and Recreation, Pewaukee Food Pantry, Pewaukee Kiwanis Bach Party, St. Peter's Episcopal Church in North Lake and Saint John's Home of Milwaukee. She also has three elderly people she visits and helps with errands.

– Freeman Staff